

Silgan Dispensing can help drive sales of your auto care products by giving consumers a better experience

Our broad portfolio of dispensing solutions is engineered to:

Stop consumers in their tracks

64% of consumers tried something new because the packaging caught their eye.¹ Our smart aesthetics deliver on performance while giving your brand an ownable look on the shelf.

Hit the mark

When accuracy matters, we deliver. Our pumps and sprayers are designed to effortlessly guide the dose—making it easy for consumers to use the product as directed—and keep using it.

Deliver value at every turn

Smart features save time and money. From ready-to-use, hose-end sprayers to mess-free, one-piece closures, our dispensing solutions create a better brand experience for consumers.
