

Spray Cap Diaz

Versatile Applications // Superb Performance

Diaz aerosol spray cap meets the rising demand for horizontal spray solutions in home care and technical applications. Its ergonomic design, solid back hinge, and intuitive finger push area ensure effortless, direct actuation. Compatible with compressed air and gas aerosols, Diaz enables smooth spraying of even complex formulations. With optimal mechanical properties and a functional, generic design, Diaz delivers reliability, convenience, and superior performance for diverse aerosol applications.

Spray Cap Diaz

The right solution for a perfect spray

- Polypropylene spray cap suitable for home care and technical applications
- The IP protected Diaz has a versatile and flexible Inserted Button System.
- By adapting the insert to the formulation, the requested spray pattern can be achieved
- Suitable for compressed air and gas aerosols
- Fits standard necked-in tinplate cans
- Consistent horizontal spray
- Standard design, yet perfectly suitable for customization
- Different spray patterns feasible, depending on the formulation and customer demands

Design and Options

- Diameter: 52 mm
- Height: 43 mm
- Designed for all common valve dimensions
- Flexibility with the insert
- Gloss surface finish
- Suitable for solid colours, transparent and translucent

Most used for:

- Room sprays
- Technical sprays
- Other applications are possible.

